

NoAW KESP Forum

NoAW website level 2 is designed to be a forum for discussion for the project and KESP members. It can be accessed by logging in through the public website.

The main functions of the forum are the following:

- provide information, materials to project and KESP members
- share the up-to-date information on the project progress and publishable results with and KESP members
- discuss relevant inputs /outputs on the Forum.

Typical types of results having interest for the KESP members:

- Solution for a problem;
- Identification of a new opportunity, which can be exploited through the use of the new knowledge;
- Assistance to a solution for a problem (tools, methods, systems, established rules / relationships);
- Assessment of feasibility
- Information, data, which can be used for solving a problem;
- Timely identification of a problem before it is getting critical (breaking old beliefs, false trust).
- Information on business opportunities, market, international cooperation and innovation.

Please consider to send us materials, which can keep interest alive, for example:

- sharing state of the art, factsheets, reviews, (targeted distribution to KESP members through the web – site),
- topics that that could be discussed with the stakeholders,
- Temporary access to software, database.

This activity should not compromise the protectability of Intellectual Properties but we would like to highlight that the KESP members will sign non-disclosure agreement.
