

Dr. Cornelia STRAMM, Head of the Dpt. Material Development and Head of the Business Field of Functional Materials of the institute, studied chemistry. She is responsible for several national and international projects in the field food packaging.