

Dr. Francesco VALENTINO is an assistant researcher in Industrial Chemistry. His research activity is mainly dedicated to the study and development of industrial biological processes for the production of polyhydroxyalkanoates from renewable resources with the simultaneous treatment of wastewaters.

E-mail: francesco.valentino@uniroma1.it